

Author/Presenter's Certification Statement

Abstracts due January 15, 2009; Final papers due May 1, 2009

Pease read and initial each line item

_____ This abstract is being offered in good faith. If it is accepted, I will do my best to insure that I meet all required deadlines.

_____ This is an abstract of an original and unpublished work that is not pending publication elsewhere. I understand that the acceptance of the abstract will be based on its technical content. (if applicable) My co-authors have give me their permission to submit this abstract and paper.

_____ I agree not to change the title of my abstract, its content or subject of the paper after it has been accepted. If there are circumstances that make it impossible for me to present that particular paper, I will discuss it with my session chairman or the conference organizer well in advance of the paper deadline.

_____ I understand that it is my responsibility to insure that my subject is suitable for presentation at an open meeting. I intend to personally present this paper at the conference, and I am under no restriction (by law, contract or otherwise) from making the presentation at an open meeting.

_____ I will abide by NASF's policy of omitting proprietary or trade names in my paper and audiovisual materials. When it is absolutely necessary to use proprietary or trade names, I will identify them generically in the body of the paper, but will limit each to a single footnote in which I am allowed to provide the product name, company that manufactures it, and city/state of that company.

_____ I give NASF permission to edit my abstract for publication in NASF's promotional materials and to publish the edited abstract.
